

ACES REVIEW

What does the poem “Alone” reveal about E. A. Poe?

The poem “Alone” by E. A. Poe reveals how sad and tragic his life was. The poem states “From childhood's hour I have not been/As others were; I have not seen/As others saw...” Also, Poe says that his life was always dark and tragic, and everything positive was overshadowed by something terrible. In conclusion, Poe’s poem “Alone” describes his lonely and tragic life.

What is missing? Compose the missing parts.