

Prewriting-Part II: Textual Evidence

1. Narrow down your brainstorming ideas to the three arguments that you can support and discuss the best.
2. For each of the three arguments, find two direct quotes from the text that you may use in your essay as textual evidence or example. The quotes you select must be relevant to each of the arguments.
3. Include the page number for each direct quote; Make sure that each direct quote is in quotation marks.

Example: "My name is entirely white! There be no blush to my name in the village!" (458)
