

Name:

Date:

Semester II
Independent Reading Project Presentations
Grading Rubric

Expectations	Score 10 points each	Comments
Project is visually appealing and demonstrates originality and creativity
Quality and complexity of the project reflect the time given for completion
Presenter shows the book to the audience, and briefly explains why he/she selected this work to share with the class
Presenter introduces/explains the project and clearly establishes/explains the relevance of the project to the content of the book
Presentation is organized in a logical order and is easy to follow
Presentation is precise/focused and is able to hold the audience's attention
Presenter maintains eye contact with the audience
Pace and volume are appropriate
Language/body language is appropriate for the situation
Presenter is dressed appropriately for the situation
Presentation is no less than 3 minutes, and no more than 6 minutes long

FINAL SCORE: _____ / 110 POINTS